

Cultivating the Culture of Success at Home

A Parent Leadership Development Workshop

By far, the most powerful influence a child has is a parent.

This session's objective is to develop parents who are more conscious of how they raise their children and confident in their capacity to lovingly lead them to academic & life success.

During this fun & lively presentation, parents participate in:

- a storytelling activity that emphasizes the importance of establishing literacy as a family value
- a delightful lesson that equips them to positively lead their children to overall success

Parents leave empowered in their capacity to lead and to:

- ~ create a love of reading and reinforce literacy at home
- ~build confidence in their children
- ~become their child's core advocate

Presentation is also available in Spanish!
